because we only have one planet™

compostable

Protecting our environment and helping to make our world more sustainable has become priority number one. Handgards wants to do our part – Introducing Planetgards™ Compostable Gloves.

Our compostable gloves are made using 100% compostable and renewable PLA resin. Additionally, Planetgards™ products are all manufactured in the U.S.A., not only reducing our carbon footprint, but significantly reducing yours as well. Taking these steps to ensure sustainability is imperative, because we only have one planet.

- * 100% compostable in commercial composting facilities
- * ASTM D6400 certified for compostability
- * Printed with bold water-based inks to easily distinguish compostability
- * Proudly Made in the USA
